Scarlett Aguirre is the student of the month she is a bright fun energetic student. She always very kind and sweet to her friends is blessing having her in our class.

PRE

Christopher Fernandez is a very serious and determined student. He loves to be first at the project table and super creative with his art projects. I can always count on him to help clean up also. Great job, my little "Sour Patch Kid"!

PRE

Samantha Barrera is our star student. She is very kind and sweet to her friends. She is always willing to give a helping hand when needed. Way to go Samantha!

JR. K

Josiah Galeana is a quiet student but he is amazing in his studies. He does very well in Math and he has improved a lot in his reading skills. He has excellent behavior inside and outside the classroom and is very respectful to his peers and teachers.

KINDER

Emma Casas is very bright, well behaved and loves to volunteer to help her teacher and her Classmates. Emma also has Perfect Attendance!

FIRST

Ms. Julia does a fantastic job keeping our campus clean. She is always willing to step in when we have any last minute changes.

— Mr. Jackson

Mrs. Sanchez is always ready to help out. She makes herself available to fill in wherever she is needed. She also loves to keep the children engaged in fun creative activities.

— Ms. Martha

STAFF

Ashlynn Smith has made great progress in organization and time management this year. Her overall grades have improved, and we are all very proud of her. Keep up the great work!

Middle School

Thiago Solano is thriving in all subjects. He does well in arithmetic, and is happy to explain difficult concepts to his peers. He has great leadership qualities. I was proud of his articulate Student Council speech.

FIFTH

Anabel Figueroa has been studying diligently in each subject. She loves to dance, and has been extremely helpful with our Christmas production. She is a kind friend to all, and works well in all groups.

FOURTH

Jonah Ochoa has shown academic excellence and dedication to his studies. He is challenging himself with third grade math and improving daily. He also has shown kindness and leadership in the classroom by helping other students when in need. Awesome work Jonah!

SECOND

This month I would like to recognize Isaiah Coultas. He has shown academic excellence and leadership in and outside of the classroom. Isaiah goes above and beyond to help his classmates, and friends.
